Trumpet Goofs

We goofed! In last week's Trumpet we incorrectly reported Dr. Clifford Hanson, Philosophy Department, to being professor of philosophy and Greek when it should have been professor of philosophy and religion at Dana College, Blair, Neb. We apologize.

Annual Day Set To Honor Alumni

Wartburg's annual Alumni Day will be held next Thursday, according to Alumni Director Bob Gremmels.

High light of the day will be a program at 3 p.m. in the chapel-auditorium. This program, which will bring the Music, Drama, Art and Religious Departments together, is designed to show what Wartburg is doing in the field of contemporary religious expression.

Frank Tirro Jazz Mass will be performed by the Castle Singers; the choir will sing a German number, "Wachit Auf"; a one-act play, "The Sandbox," will be performed by the Drama Department; and original art work will be displayed by students in the Art Department.

"This is a new approach to Alumni Day," said Gremmels, "but I think many of our alumni will like it because it will give them an opportunity to see first hand what Wartburg is doing today in one important area of education."

In effect, Wartburg, rather than an outside speaker, will be the day's celebrity.

Registration for the day will begin at 1 p.m. in the Chapel-auditorium lobby. Other features of the day include a coffee hour from 1:30-2:45, the traditional Sunset Supper at 5:15 and Baccalaureate at 8 p.m.

Paper Rates Top

Wartburg Trumpet has recently received an All-American rating for the first semester of publication.

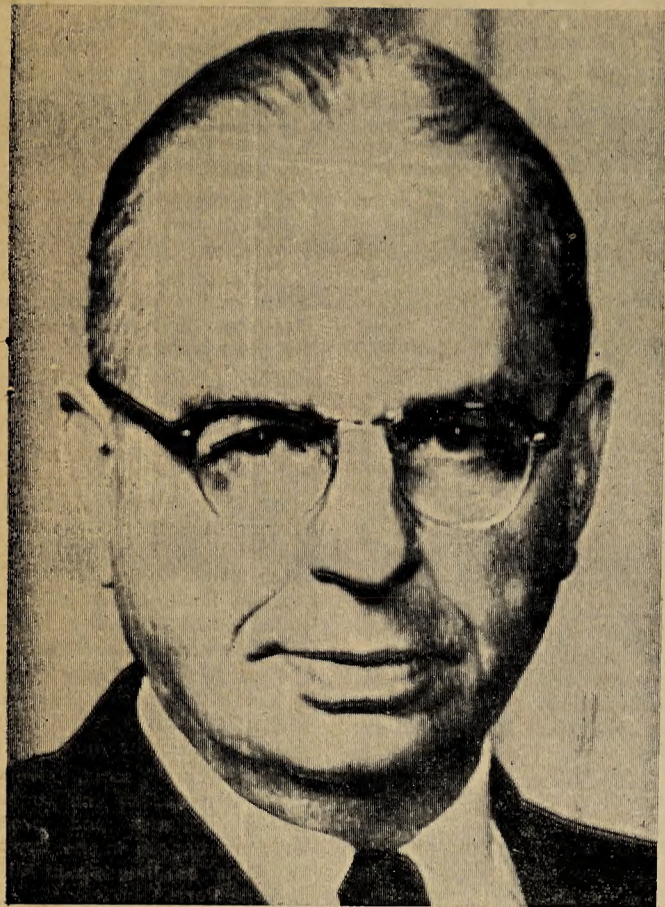

This award, which is given by the Associated Collegiate Press, is the highest award given to college newspapers.

On the rating the Trumpet received 3,460 points. This is 60 more than is required for the All-American rating.

None of the sections rated was below very good and the majority were excellent or superior.

This is the 11th year out of the past 16 that the Trumpet has received the All-American award.

Fortress Editor Closes Year

By Linda Stull

Fortress editor Pat Reab breathed an audible sigh of relief when the yearbooks arrived on Tuesday, three days before they were expected.

It ends a year of hard work, meeting deadlines and trying desperately to put out the best Fortress ever.

Putting out a yearbook is no new experience for Pat. She helped with last year's Fortress and worked on her high school yearbook staff.

A senior from Manly, Pat has an English major and history minor. She is planning to be married July 5.

Asked what she thought a yearbook should be, Pat replied, "The yearbook must be a record of the year's events and should give a good picture of Wartburg to outsiders. I suppose it could be called a good advertisement as well as being good entertainment."

Besides working on Fortress staffs, Pat has written for the Trumpet. She is secretary of Young Democrats and is a member of Alpha Phi Gamma, honorary journalism fraternity.

General trend in this year's Fortress is toward more pictures and less copy. The one really frustrating experience Pat said she had this year concerned pictures for division pages.

Pictures that were supposed to be used were copyrighted in Britain and Pat was unable to get permission to use them.

"It was quite a headache trying to get permission, being refused and then trying to find other pictures," she said.

Fortress is the same size as last year. Theme is "Sculpture." The cover is slate gray with a hammer and chisel inscribed on the front.

"I hope that next year we will have more people working on the Fortress," said Pat. "This year we had a small staff and it was quite a load on them. With a larger staff it would be more enjoyable for everyone."

The book was presented by Miss Reab to Dr. John O. Chellevold, dean of faculty, at the annual honors convocation last Tuesday.

Since the general theme was sculpture, the book was dedicated to the faculty.

Those students who have not picked up their copy of the Fortress may do so from 2 to 4 p.m. on Monday at the Publication House, according to Miss Reab.

Pictures that were used in the Fortress are also available for sale. Students may purchase these at the pub house on Monday also. For the 8 by 10 pictures the cost is 25 cents and all other pictures are 10 cents.

In closing Pat said, "It's been a lot of fun, I've learned a lot, but I'm glad it's over!"

Shadows Lengthen

Long Shadows from the elms,
Tall trees the campus o'er,
Cast spells that memories shall Hold dear forevermore.

Long Shadows from the elms,
Reaching from our college days,
Keep Wartburg loyalties
And guide us always.

loyalty song

These haunting strains will echo through the halls
for the last time this week for 187 seniors.

Graduation Day — the day that seemed so far away when the suitcases were unloaded in September, 1959, and so close in the short week ahead.

Shading four years of life, those shadows lengthened memory upon memory — each surpassing the last until the memory turned into a silhouette of tomorrow.

It is with mixed emotions that seniors face the dawning world. Shedding the protective shadow of parents and college, the world looms lonely and heavy with responsibility. The experience of learning becomes the experience of living.

College molds that future — sets up those far-away goals, entrusts that student with responsibility, courage, honor and confidence — confidence to face
the world and to know that he is well-prepared.

In leaving Wartburg one leaves many shadows behind — shadows that will lengthen with each passing year. Shadows of friends — that walk along snowy sidewalks, the chatter in the dorms, having coffee in the den, meeting that special someone . . .

One also leaves the shadow of tradition — that bright beannie to signify newness, convocation twice a week, Christmas at Wartburg, semester exams, Outfly . . .

As 187 graduates receive diplomas on Friday morning, 187 long shadows will spread to all parts of the earth, lengthening the shadows of progress and success.

Twenty-four hour quiet hours are now in effect. Overheard:
"I'll have to concentrate harder on keeping quiet than on my studies."

Why doesn't somebody tell the weatherman this is May?

Relating to a sign posted outside a teacher's office in Old

High Points Of '63 Reviewed

By Nancy Keel

For the seniors the "Days of Wine and Roses" are soon to draw to a close.
This list of events is dedicated to them in remembrance of their final year at Wartburg.

Enrollment this year reached an all time high of 1,116, including two students from Germany, one from Africa and three from the Philippines.

Convocations this year were tied together with the unique theme "Isolation/Involvement." Students became involved in conversations on the feasibility of a jazz mass, on the religiosity of the play "Cain"
and on the lecture by Dr. Arnold Toynbee.

This year was the second year for an all-college book. The play "J.B." was accompanied by tape recordings and "The Power and the Glory" was illustrated
by the movie "The Fugitive."

English Department sponsored a lecture series on the French novel and initiated the film series, highlighted by the "Bolshoi Ballet" and "Henry V." This year also saw changes in the freshman English classes.

Concert Band put on its second Minstrel Show and took a tour through Illinois. The members also combined with Castle Singers to perform a memorial to George Gershwin. The Choir tour took members through Minnesota and North and South Dakota.

Dramatics Department displayed its talents in the productions "Squaring the Circle,"
"Five Finger Exercise" and
"Night Must Fall." The season was closed with the musical
"Once Upon a Mattress" by the Castle Singers.

This year also saw many newsworthy events. The ALC Conference at Dana was attended by 30 students and a Journalism Conference was held on campus for high school students. Wartburg College was finally granted
its own charter in October.

Student Body President Dick Buchsteiner stepped down this spring to let Nelson Meyer take over. Karl Fink was elected treasurer and Lois Plotter secretary. Ron Burrichter was elected vice president.

Student government saw several changes take place. The passage of new hours for women, several constitutional changes, the reactivation of the Faculty-Student Council and a new newspaper, "The College Clippings" were a few of these.

This spring 187 seniors will have gone "Through the closing doors," and "the door marked nevermore." They will have the satisfaction of knowing they have helped to change the face of Wartburg.

This year saw the beginnings of a College Quiz Bowl program, the initiation of the presidential conferences, several curriculum changes and the beginning of phase four of the curriculum study.

There will also be new rules
for next year's initiation as a result of an opinion poll passed in convocation.

Along with the new and different, the old and traditional will be remembered by graduates. This year's Student Body Project netted $2,130 for lounge furniture in the new addition to the Student Union. Campus Chest collected $668.

"Bound to Be Free" was the topic of this year's Spiritual Emphasis Week. James Crane from the Art Department at Wisconsin State College and L. David Brown, Youth Director of the ALC, were the speakers.

The Artist Series brought an interesting and talented variety to the Wartburg stage with Dame Judith Anderson, the National Ballet of Canada, Mezzo-soprano
Grace Bumbry, Foo Hsing Children's Theatre, New York Pro
Musica and Korean pianist Tong
Il Han.

Lighthearted concerts were given in the fall by the Four Freshmen and in the spring
by the Limelifers.

"The lonely night discloses
just a passing breeze filled with memories . . ."

Memories of Homecoming are disclosed by passing thoughts of queen Jan Wegenast, by the Kastle Kaper's theme "When Knights Were Bold" and by the dance called "Moon River." The religious theme was "Christ, Our Cornerstone," and the football
theme was "Blot Out Penn."

"Fantasyland in Snow" brings back more memories. This year brought special anxieties as everyone "prayed for snow."

The year's social events were climaxed by the Junior-Senior Banquet and prom.
Students danced in the streets
of Paris as they spent "Un Soir de Paris."

This was the year that the dial came to Waverly and this was the spring that the colors of the fishpond alternated between green and red. This was also the spring that the picture of President Kennedy was stolen.

These memories of "The Days of Wine and Roses" are being sent to the graduating class to wish them the best of luck in the future.

Knights Play Winona Again

Knight diamondmen move into the final action of the regional N.A.I.A. tournament this afternoon after being defeated yesterday by Winona State 4-0.

Winona picked up its first two runs in the first inning on a hit batsman, wild pitch and two doubles. The other two were scored in the fourth on a fielder's choice, an error, a single and another error.

The Knights advanced to the regional finals against Winona by defeating William Jewell in two straight games last week.

In the first game, played on Tuesday, Leon Carley picked up his seventh win of the season. He spread out eight hits and allowed only one run as he went the entire route.

Wartburg picked up two runs in the top of the seventh inning when Frank Merrill reached first on an error by the William Jewell shortstop. Bill Fulcher sacrificed and then Carley reached first on another error by the shortstop. Roger Kittleson drove in Merrill with a single and Carley scored as Dave Langrock grounded out.

Wartburg picked up its third run in the top of the eighth as Exner opened with a single. Ristau, following, was safe on a fielder's choice, took second on a balk and came in to score on a single by Merrill.

The line score showed Wartburg with three runs on seven hits and one error. William Jewell had one run on eight hits and they committed three errors.

William Jewell scored its only run in the bottom of the eighth as Jack Fore reached first on a fielder's choice and then scored as Doug Kerr hit a double.

In the second game Wartburg, behind the fine pitching of Gary Medlang, again won, this time by the score of 3-2.

William Jewell scored first with two runs in the fourth inning as they combined a hit, an error, a stolen base and another hit.

Wartburg came back in the bottom half of the inning as Ray Bye walked with two men out, stole second and scored on Exner's single.

The Knights tied the score in the sixth as Ristau hit a triple and then scored on an error by the shortstop.

Wartburg scored the winning run in the seventh as Kittleson and Eldon Ott walked and Bye collected his first hit of the series, sending Kittleson across.

William Jewell again outthit the Knights as they collected nine hits while Wartburg had only five. There was a total of six errors in the game; Wartburg committed five of them.

Grossmann Takes IM Track Crown

Grossmann Hall won the intramural track championship last Tuesday with a total of 97½ points. Second place Clinton scored 75½. Off-campus placed third with 29½ followed by Married Men with 10½ and North Hall with 2.

Clinton won seven of the 16 events, but Grossmann came through with second and third place wins to back up its four first place winners and finished the meet 22½ points ahead of Clinton.

First place winners for Grossmann were: Don Nixon, 220-yard dash, 26.7 seconds; Steve Allspach, 880 yard run, 2:32.8; and Paul Anderson, football throw, 132 feet.

For Clinton, Dave Lange ran the fat man's 100 in 11.5, Jim Engelkes finished the mile in 5:27.7, John Mentey won the 440 in .62, Bill Kneer did the 440 walk in 2:07.3, Mike Goebel won the 120 low hurdles race in 17.8 and Kneer and Mike Westphal tied at 5'6" in the high jump.

Third place Off-campus had two double winners. Lee Ward won the 100 - yard dash in 11.4 and the broad jump with a 17'6½" jump and Denny Rubenow put the shot 44'1¾" and threw the discus 86'4".

Grossmann won the mile relay, Clinton won the 880 relay and Off-campus placed first in the 440 relay.

Two Cindermen In Regional Meet

Two Wartburg cindermen have been entered in the NCAA Regional Small College tournament being held at Cedar Falls this weekend.

Len Schmidt and Bob Wachholz are entered in the high jump and the javelin throw. Both are school record holders in their respective events.

Schmidt won the high jump in last week's conference meet with a 6'1" jump. He set a school record earlier this season with a jump of 6'2½", ½ inch better than the old record set in 1957. In last week's conference meet he was just one inch short of the conference record.

Wachholz placed second in the conference meet in the javelin throw which was won by Bob Leshman of Dubuque with a 187'11½" toss. Wachholz has tossed the javelin as far as 201' during the regular season.

Wartburg trackmen placed third in the conference meet, just one point behind Dubuque. Luther totaled 75 points to win the meet by a large margin.

Dubuque edged out Wartburg and finished with 39 points, Wartburg had 38, defending champion Parsons was fourth with 20, Buena Vista totaled 15½, Central 15, William Penn 13, Upper Iowa 4½, Simpson 4 and Iowa Wesleyan 1.

The Knights took an early lead over Dubuque in the meet after Schmidt, Joel Niemann and Jerry Schara took the first three places in the high jump and Ted Johnson won the broad jump with a 20'10½" jump.

Wartburg failed to get another first in the meet. Lothar Columbus placed third in the mile run and fourth in the two - mile run, Harold Shudlick and Niemann were second and fourth in the 120 high hurdles, Bill Davis placed fifth in the 880-yard run and Jerry Zehr finished second in the 220 low hurdles.

The Knights needed a win in the last event of the meet to beat Dubuque, but were edged out by Luther in the mile relay and had to settle for second place in that event.

Preliminaries in the Regional tournament were held yesterday and the finals were scheduled for today.

Second For Golf In Closing Action

Wartburg golfers fired a 317 last Saturday which was good for second place in the Iowa Conference Tournament. Luther's Norskies, defending champions, repeated last year's victory with a 312 total.

Rich Amundson of Luther won medalist honors with an outstanding 3 over par 73 while Milt Marshall of Wartburg finished second with a 75 and Jerry Willhite of Parsons third with a 76.

Wartburg's 317 total came from Milt Marshall's 38-37-75, Bruce Hein's 36-42-78, Harry Jebson's 40-40-80, and Leigh Pietsch's 40-44-84 while Jerome Hemenway's 44-48-92 didn't contribute to the second place score because the meet was based on a best four out of five man basis.

Besides the second place finish at the Conference, the Knights finished up the season with a 5-6-1 dual meet record. This is quite an improvement over last year's 1-7 record.

Fourth Place Finish For Knight Netsters

Two individual champions gave the Knights a fourth place finish in the Iowa Conference Tennis Championships last Saturday. Parsons won the team title with 38 points, Luther and Penn tied for second with 28 followed by the Knights with 26.

Freshman Jack Wendt won the second flight doubles title by defeating Don Swinn of William Penn 12-4. On his way to victory he defeated Jim Seidel of Simpson and Dave Zoschke of Central.

Sophomores John Thalacker of Tripoli and Jerome Shinkay of Beloit, Wis., defeated Doug Tolman and Leigh Olson of Luther 12-8 to gain the second flight doubles championship.

The fourth place finish in the conference meet capped an otherwise disappointing season for the netsters who finished the dual meet season with a 2-8 record.

Schmidt, Tim Tower, Bill Smith, Dave Brunscheen and Jim Mueller were presented with the Senior Award, a monogrammed blanket.

Stipulations for this award are: a letter for three years in one sport, recipient of a letter the senior year and recommendation of both the coaching staff and the "W" Club.

★ Bill Riggle, "W" Club vice-president, presented Arnie Brandt, 1958 Knight graduate, with the Coach of the Year Award. Brandt is the wrestling coach at Wapsie Valley.
